“ Thank you to everyone for leaving messages about my dad. Everyone that knew him, knew him by different names. Some knew him as "jack", his sisters called him "jackie", his grand kids called him "pap jack", his uber friends called him "Uber Jack", and my brother and I got the honor of calling him dad. The one thing is, he was a great man no matter the name. If he had something and knew you needed it, he would have given it to you in a heart beat. He had the biggest heart. I remember waking up to hearing my front door opening on a sunday morning and seeing him drop off a pepperoni roll and a loaf of Italian bread, then driving away without saying a word. He did these things not expecting anything in return. He was always thinking of everyone else. He'd call and tell me that he has freeze pops for the kids, or a bag of candy for them. We talked all the time about everything, life, kids, work. He'd tell me I'm "nuts" because of my jokes I cracked, especially about him being on the same baseball team as Jesus..... and he'd laugh to the point that he couldn't talk.... lol. He taught me how to bet on football, and to never bet "on" or "against" the steelers..... ever lol. I miss my dad very very much and wish that he would drop off some pepperoni bread just one more time....

“ Jack was my neighbor for almost 10 years and was like a grandfather to my daughter and my late son. Jack was a good man! He loved his sons and grandchildren more than life itself. He was a proud father and he loved his family! I will miss all the loving talks of his family and of his life! He will be truly missed and forever will be a stamp of greatness in our hearts! With love, Stacey and Sapphira-Lin

“ For my big brother, who was one of the nicest men I have ever known. I was blessed to have him walk me down the aisle when I got married. On a funny note, I recall when someone would tell him something and he would always act surprised and say, "No sh**?". We will miss you. Love your Montana Family, Eileen, Dom, and Elizabeth.

“ I still can't wrap my head around you not being on Facebook anymore and making me laugh at the things you post or getting to offer you fake names so you can start a new identity while you were in Facebook jail (which you were in quit often) I know you're in heaven because God only takes the kind and gentle souls and that definitely was you. Thanks for all the memories while we were growing up in the projects. Until we meet again.

I remember Jackie and Bill Rosenwald would drive around Garfield with a toy plastic telephone (red) Jackie would pretend he was talking on it, he pulled it up to far and the end of the cord was just dangling in the air, not connected to anything, (I'm laughing just thinking about it) everyone was cracking up so funny. Will miss your post on Facebook RIP Action Jackson.
