“ Hello Fred. I ran across your mom’s obituary on the Corl website, and I am very sorry for your loss! My mom just passed away too. She died on July 30 and we dealt with Corl too. So, we are going through the same thing! I remember you all the way from Moss Side Elementary School up to Gateway class of 1980. I remember you as “Freddie Kuehn,” a nice, redhead kid who had a dairy farm. I was a little jealous you lived on a farm. I thought that would be pretty cool to have lots of cows and other animals. Lol. I remember we went on a field trip to see it.

Anyway, I just keep crying and crying. It’s just so hard to believe! I am sure you are filled with sadness too. I am praying for you and your partner and your whole family for healing, strength and peace. May both of our beloved, beautiful moms rest in peace!!! I’m sure we will see them again someday.

Just wanted to get in touch with you after all these years and years. I am not shy anymore. LOL. I have 2 beautiful daughters, 5 very cute, albeit a little loud grandchildren, and 3 dogs. I don’t have any cows. Take care Fred. I see you lost your dad too. So sad. This getting old thing just sucks!!! Doesn’t it? Rest in peace DADS too. I lost my dad way back on Valentine’s Day of 1992. I STILL MISS HIM. Well, I am sure this letter comes as a surprise. LOL
