“ I remember all the great times we had at the Hickman house, and how Aunt Joy was such a gracious host. We had lots of laughter and lots of fun with the Hickman family and will miss and joy very much. Steven I wish the best for you and your family and grieve your loss your mother was a great woman like all the Schmidt women. Don't be a stranger after 40 years Stephen reach out and say hello take care from the Baldwin family.

“ I would love to be able to say the joy and I always got along but that would not be the case. For many years she did not care for me. But I believe overtime that changed. Before her last surgery that she had she hugged me and whispered in my ear I know you don't think I love you Jen but I do. That is when I truly knew that she did love me and I loved her. I never really understood how much you loved your son until I had sons of my own. I thank you for helping raise such a beautiful person that I get to spend the rest of my life with. You would often say to me I don't know why I'm here and I would tell you the reason you're here is 6 foot 2 with red hair and brown eyes and he goes by the name of Steve. You are a wonderful mother and a wonderful Grammy. I am so thankful that you survived at a pound and a half. I believe everything happens for a reason. You survived a premature birth so you could have a wonderful son. And I could have a wonderful husband. And we could have wonderful children. You saved my life twice and didn't even know it. I will always love you and forever be grateful your loving daughter-in-law

“ Sometimes memories bring comfort and make me smile,
But there are times when grief takes over for a while;
Friends offer gentle words and prayers to console,
And tell me what has happened to your loving soul;
Can it be true what they say of time healing grief?
Is it enough when they say death has given you relief?
Love you always

Your loving sister Carol!

Joye was such a welcome addition to our neighborhood. I loved it when she and Julie would walk past our house. She always had a beautiful smile and a kind word. Steve, Jen, Brandon and Aidan, I am so sorry for your loss. Take comfort in knowing that you all took such good care of her. What a blessing!
