

June E. O'Leary

January 8, 2023

June E. O'Leary was born on March 14, 1927, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and died on January 8, 2023. After high school she attended Duff's School of Business, studying to become a secretary. Upon completing her studies, she worked as a secretary for the University of Pittsburgh. She married Robert E. O'Leary on December 25, 1948, and then devoted herself to raising their three children, Janet Balas, Robert O'Leary, and Kevin O'Leary. During those years she was an active member of Bethel United Presbyterian Church in Monroeville, teaching Sunday school classes for many years. She returned to work in the 1970's as the secretary for the director of the Monroeville Public Library. She always loved dancing so after her husband, Bob, retired, they became active in local ballroom dancing clubs. Eventually they started a DJ business, Melodees, and played at club dances and other local affairs for 20 years. Her choice of music and his humorous style of announcing made them favorites of the local groups, including the Tiffany Dance Club and the Pittsburgh Chapter of USABDA. Always able to see the good in others, her thoughtfulness and kind manner deeply touched those around her. June was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Bertha Lockhart and her beloved husband, Robert E. O'Leary. She is survived by her children, Janet Balas (Barry), Robert O'Leary (Patricia) and Kevin O'Leary; grandchildren, Christopher Balas (Kim), Benjamin Balas (Erin), Kristin O'Leary and Jaclyn Snyder (Justin); and was the great-grandmother of Blaise Balas and Jade and Olivia Snyder.
