“ I have wonderful memories of your mom, including when she found a Times Express article in Ed's pocket when doing laundry, Steve taking a honorary ride home in a fire truck, and many others. I wish I could be there to express my condolences in person. We were all lucky to have her in our lives, and to have her help to shape our values.

“ Your mom was a lovely person. I remember when we all went to the theater to see Miss Saigon. (I think that's what we saw) and I think we ate at Monterey Bay. I'm very sorry for your loss. I know she was a great Mom. Mrs G 🥺💔

“ Your mom was the best! She was such a sweet lady. Loved listening to her speak because of her accent and hearing about her interesting life. She was like a MOM to all of us! We'll miss seeing her at family gatherings at Moira and Dean's.

There's one more bright star shining in Heaven now.
We'll miss you Kathleen!
