“ I have so many wonderful memories of both Kathy and Bill. I attended their wedding along with many of my aunts, uncles and cousins. We spent holidays, reunions, cookouts and lots of family get togethers with them. When Bill passed I was happy that Kathy kept in touch. Loved talking to her on the phone and was glad that she was making new friends and involved in different activities at Weatherwood Manor. Kathy was a very kind, delightful woman who adored her family. I will miss her very much.
