“ Jerry, I'm so sorry for your loss. So many will miss Kathleen's beautiful soul. Without saying a word, she could light up a room. What a wonderful gift that was. Dawn

“ Jerry, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Kathleen. I am Mary Ann Busch's sister Regina. If I was in the same room as Kathleen she would always find me and give me a big hug. She was a beautiful lady inside and out. She will be missed💔

“ Never got to drive a Porsche but I did get to dance with the sweet, kind, and vivacious Kathleen. Always a Lady and a spunky one at that! The world lost some needed warmth and brightness at her passing. But I think we are comforted in the knowledge that she loved the Lord and will surely rest in His loving arms. Joan and I extend our deepest sympathies to Jerry and their combined families.

Deepest condolences. Jerry and Kathleen introduced me to dancing about 3 yrs ago. They were teaching me at their apartment complex, after my wifes sudden death. They were kind and compassionate. Kathleen and I would dance East Coast Swing. I had a lot to learn. They were patient. Kathleen and I would talk at the Palisades dances also. I was diagnosed with lymphoma. So we'd talk about our treatments. Kathleen you have been my prayers ever since you told me. I'm truly sorry for the loss, Jerry and the family you'll be in my prayers. I'd like to be at the mass Friday however I'm getting bloodwork done for my lymphoma then.
