“ Kevin was such a great friend and the best neighbor anyone could ever want. He was the first to greet us when we moved next door 16 years ago, and has been a great friend since. Over the next many years we watched our kids grow up together. I was fortunate to be able to greet Kevin almost daily. On the coldest winter days, it was sometimes just a wave; most days it was a friendly word or two in the yard (OK, with Kevin, it was usually more than a word or two - it was usually lots of words); on the best summer days, it was a cold Molsen on the front porch. We will miss him dearly - he was always a friend and a gentleman. It's hard to imagine the neighborhood without his infectious laugh. Our hearts go out to Kathy, Andrew and Colleen, and we cannot begin to comprehend your loss. Know that you are in our hearts and prayers, and that are always just a few steps away if you ever need anything. With deepest sympathies...

“ May the family of Kevin Schreiber find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) With deepest sympathy,
