“ The first time I met Don was when I came to visit Joanne in Sept. 1956. We became such good friends that I asked him to be best man at our wedding. Our bachelor party consisted of getting a bucket of beer & whiskey shooters at a bar on 2nd Ave. I know that I will miss him. My thoughts & prayers to the family. Sincerely, Thomas W Schmittou Lt. Col. US Air Force, Retired Like Don, a fellow Korean Conflict veteran

“ Don was a caring and attentive grandfather to his three grandsons; Anthony, Jake and Joey. Whenever he could Don would show up at their football and hockey games to cheer them on. He was very proud of them. He will be missed by all.
