“ June and family,

It's hard to believe that Linda and I met Les in 1973 and 1974 respectively first at US Steel and then at the Garden City Church. He was such a fine man, full of life and humor. There is no specific memory that sticks in my mind. But we thought of him as a fine man who set an outstanding example of service and friendship his entire life.

Those of us who knew him will miss him. We wish the fond memories of his life will give you comfort.
