“ I lived across the hall from Linda at LaVale Apartments. Enjoyed our talks and learned so much from her regarding quilting and knitting 🧶. My door is always open for visitors and Linda would stop in just to talk. If it wasn't for her I would know nothing about the Instant Pot. I had to get a 6 quart. With Linda's help my first dinner was spare ribs they came out delicious. Linda said they were perfect. Now I have an 8 quart too. I only knew Linda for a short time but enjoyed her friendship so much. Thank you Linda for being my friend. I will always remember you in my prayers. Now God has you in his arms and you are at peace.

“ I only knew Linda for a few years, living near her at LaVale Apartments. We always talked when we met, and we talked more in depth at Socially Distanced & Masked Lobby Meetings with other Tenants during this time of isolation. Linda was Kind & Knowledgeable, and an Artist with her Crafts. She will be missed by those of us on the 6th Floor at LaVale, and many others I'm sure. I think we all came to know and love her more from our 6th Floor Lobby Meetings. May God Bless You & Keep You, Linda. You left us way too soon. (Joe Casato, LaVale Apts.)
