

Lorraine M. Demarest

September 26, 2021

Lorraine M. Demarest, 83, of Monroeville, passed away on Sunday, September 26, 2021. She was preceded in death by her parents, Wallace and Albina (Zajac) Zablocki, her husband, William A. Demarest, and her sister, Carol Ann Zablocki. She is survived by her children, Leslie Stanforth (John), William O. Demarest (Laura), Sandra Smith, and Dean Demarest (Tina), and her grandchildren, Shannon Stanforth, Lindsey Stanforth, Darby Demarest, Declan Demarest, Daryl Demarest, Lilia Smith, and Lleyton Smith.

Lorraine was a member of the Stitching Angels at North American Martyrs Church, the Monroeville Senior Center, and Little Sisters of the Poor. She was an avid reader and especially enjoyed mystery and suspense genres. In her later years, she was a regular participant at the Senior Center bingo events and looked forward to this time with all of her friends. Her Ipad was constantly at her side as she was always in need of information or seeking answers to satisfy her inquisitive mind.

All who knew her regarded her as kind, generous, punctual, highly organized, and a wonderful listener. Above all, she was a faithful wife, and a loving mother to her children and grandchildren. On Saturday, October 16, 2021, at 10:30am, a Mass of Christian Burial will be held at Christ the Divine Shepherd Parish at St. Bernadette Church. Inurnment will be private at Good Shepherd Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be sent to Little Sisters of the Poor, the Monroeville Public Library, or the Monroeville Senior Center. Arrangements entrusted to the GENE H. “ Mom/grandma was a loving, caring beacon in our lives. She loved her family with all her soul. She will be deeply missed, but never forgotten, and always a guiding light in our lives. She accepted death with grace and courage, inspired by her steadfast faith in the Lord. May God’s grace surround the family in this time of sadness.
