“ Louise Carter was a sophisticated and elegant woman. i came to know her through her nephew Jack, but I believe we became friends in our own right. Louise attended different social events with Jack and I ,as well Jack's other friends,and she quickly became part of our social circle.With her rich, lush voice, she charmed us all with her wit and intelligence. Jack's beach party will never be quite the same, knowing she will not be able to join us. Louise will be deeply missed, and always live in our memories.
