“ Aunt Lu was a sweet lady and Mother’s little sister. I spent some memorable times with her when I was a child on “vacation” at Grandma Glaser’s. (Aunt Lu lived right next door.) I loved her sense of humor and that she always had time for me. She had ice tea and lots of books. (I loved reading.) One of my favorites was “Dear and Glorious Physician” by Taylor Caldwell. It is about St. Luke and his life. The story is fiction, based on Scriptural and historical facts. I read it again every few years. Through my adult years I visited her almost every time I traveled back East from San Diego. Just before she moved into assisted living, my sister Mary Kay and I visited. Aunt Lu prepared a lovely lunch for us and Uncle Don. It was a fun time. She gave me her recipe for ice tea. I love it and make it all the time with peppermint from Mother’s garden. Mary Kay transplanted roots to her own garden and shared them with me. I call it “LEGACY TEA” from the Glaser Clan !!
Love you now and always Aunt Lu.

“ My Dear sweet Grandma Lucy. Oh how she will be missed! I know she is at the destination she has always told me she was headed for. What a lovely day in Heaven when she arrived to be with her brothers, sisters, parents and her Heavenly Father! Although my heart longs for her I know she is pain free and would not come back for anything! Until we meet again Grandma! XOXOXOX
