“ Marge was my brother-in-law Joe's aunt who was always at all our family functions and always a little mischievous, in a good way. She was a kind friend to my Mom Caroline for many years and the loves of her life were always her husband Anthony, son Tony, Tracy and Morgan and Maria 🥺🙏

“ All of my memories of Aunt Marge are so special. She always made me feel like I was the only one in the room. I remember we would look through her jewelry box together and she would let me try on these beautiful pieces that made me feel like a princess. She was always smiling at me. I loved her and will miss her terribly. The Cimas at the beach are sending love to the Cimas and all of our families in PA. ❤️ We miss you.

“ So glad I got to visit Marge in November. She was waiting to get her lunch, so we had time to talk and reminisce. She was always so sweet and easy to talk with. We used to talk about our early years with our husbands and sons.
