“ Just recently learned of Peggy's passing. My parents, in Michigan City, IN , befriended Peggy and her brother Jack as they gave rides to Peggy and Jack to St. Mary's Catholic Church. The soon became part of our family. Both the kindest people in the world. Aunt Peggy as she became was like an angel on earth. I thought of her as our version of Clarence from the movie "Its a Wonderful Life". Blessed to have had her as our "adopted" Aunt. Her go to adjective in her always positive spirit was... "Wonderful" Well....Aunt Peggy... YOU were wonderful. Sad you are not here with us, but as your unwavering faith would attest to, I am totally at peace with knowing you are with our Lord and reunited with members of your family.

“ My deepest sympathy to Peggy's family. I first met Peggy when my Mom was a resident at Beatty Point in Monroeville. Peggy was so nice and sweet to my Mom. My moms first dear friend ❤️. When I was in town visiting my Mom I would always visit Peggy too. She called my sisters and I her family.

Peggy was a godsend for my dear mom. My heart is saddened that I can't visit with her anymore but I know Peggy is in a much better place right now and I know my Mom will be happy to see her.

Rest In Peace sweet Peggy.

“ I first met Peggy on the stairs of Saint Mary's Church in Michigan City Indiana where she would greet you with the most wonderful biggest smile and hand out prayer cards to children. Her love of the Lord and zeal for life was contagious. Many lively conversations were held over world events which she kept up with daily. One of her favorite meals was spaghetti and meatballs but sloppy Joe's would do. The Alfredo at Olive Garden was her choice, always. She genuinely cared about her fellow man and she will be deeply missed. May You rest in the sweet arms of the Lord, Peggy. We love you!
