“ Mark was a gentleman in the sense that few understand today, and even less embody. He was friendly to everyone, always put others ahead of himself, was devoted to his family and friends, and was loved by many. He was the kind of guy when he asked you how you were doing, you knew he really wanted to know the answer. It was my privilege to be his friend and mechanic. He always joked he would be glad to help me fix his truck as long as I didn't mind it taking longer. I will miss him dearly.

“ Over the years of working and golfing with Mark, we mostly remember it always being a joy to be around him. His sense of humor, knowledgeable insights, and positive attitude made every occasion more fun. Our deepest sympathies to his family and other friends as he will surely be missed by all who have known him.
