

Martha P. Dewosky

December 25, 2019

Martha Pauline Dewosky, affectionately known as “Gammy”, 86, passed peacefully with her beloved family by her side on Wednesday, December 25, 2019. Gammy was born on February 12, 1933 in Rock Glen, Pennsylvania, one of four children of George and Anna Bloschock. She always talked fondly of her childhood – being raised on the family farm, selling candy at the family’s gas station, and cheering at Black Creek High School. She married her high school sweetheart, Larry Dewosky, on August 16, 1952. The two had a beautiful life together, raising their four children, Susan, Karen, Jeff, and John Paul, in Monroeville, Pennsylvania. After years of marriage and wonderful memories, Larry passed on February 20, 1995. Gammy then dedicated her sole being to her children and grandchildren. She always took pride in her Pennsylvania roots, especially as a tried and true Pittsburgh sports fan, being a Steelers season ticket holder since the mid-1960s; however, she relocated to Huntersville, North Carolina in 2013 to be closer to her family. She spent her remaining years living life to the fullest. Her beloved Larry’s favorite Christmas song was “I’ll Be Home for Christmas” – a perfect anthem to celebrate their reunion as Gammy went to rejoin him and our Lord on Christmas Day. Gammy lived her life for everyone else but herself, as God calls us to do. She had a special way of making every person she met feel like they were the most important person to her – whether that was a life-long friend or the students at the elementary school she volunteered at. Her family was her everything, and she was everything to her family. There is nothing she loved more than bragging about her family's many accomplishments. Her humorous sayings, charismatic spirit, and selfless heart will forever live on. She is survived by her children, Susan (and Peter) Vardoulis, Karen (and Michael) Nestor, Jeff Dewosky, and John (and Suzanne) Dewosky; her grandchildren Alissa (and Vic) Stramenga, Brandon (and Kim) Dewosky, Kira Vardoulis, Teryn Vardoulis, JD Dewosky, Derek Dewosky, Taylor Dewosky, Becca Dewosky, Maria Dewosky, and Teresa Dewosky; and her great grandchildren, Caden Stramenga, Weston Stramenga, Owen Dewosky, and Alayna Dewosky. She is also survived by her sister, Michaeline Bloschock, and many nieces, nephews, and other loved ones. She is preceded in death by her parents, George and Anna Bloschock, her husband, Larry Dewosky, and her brothers, George and Jimmy Bloschock. Family and close friends will be celebrating Gammy's life at the GENE H. CORL INC. “ I have many nice memories of my cousin, Martha who was as old as my older sister. They were able to get together again a few years ago at the Dewosky reunion in Weston and had such a nice time that afternoon. I enjoyed watching them that day.

I do know that Martha was a caregiver and looked after her siblings as well as others. She was determined to keep her family close and succeeded in doing so because they all do get along so well and my family does too. Guess we had good role models as we grew up and realize the value of having a close family. I enjoyed meeting her grandchildren at the reunions too. I feel she is already taking charge of her loved ones in heaven and they were all so happy to see her too. May she Rest In Peace!

“ It was a pleasure to have Martha as an older cousin. She and Larry helped me get a job at J&J which helped me get through college. Her enthusiasm was contagious--what a dynamic spirit. I pray that she will be rewarded now for her helpfulness on earth. God bless your soul. Pat Kowalsky Chandler
