

Mary E. Hand

April 7, 2018

Mary E. Hand

Age 90, of Monroeville, passed away peacefully on April 7, 2018 at Independence Court in Monroeville while in the care of hospice services. She was born in Whitehall, New York, the daughter of Stanley and Mary Smith. She grew up in Schenectady, New York. She married her late husband, Thomas Robert Hand, in 1954, and they were happily married until his passing in 2013. Mary and her family moved to Parkersburg, West Virginia in 1963, before relocating to Monroeville in 1969. She was a faithful Jehovah's Witness, being baptized in 1960, and enjoyed discussing the Bible with everyone she met. She was an avid gardener and a wonderful cook. She was loved and respected for her charitable work, providing meals and other assistance to the sick and the elderly. She loved to travel, especially to the ocean. After her husband's retirement from Westinghouse they took several cruises, including to the Caribbean and Alaska. She is survived by three sons, Thomas Norman Hand (wife Jane, sons Nathan and Adam), Robert Lewis Hand (wife Elizabeth), and David Alan Hand. She is also survived by a sister, Charlotte Behrman, and a brother, Bud Smith. The family has arranged for a private viewing and burial service on Friday, April 13, 2018. Arrangements entrusted to the GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE. www.corlfuneralchapel.com
