April 16, 2024

Mary Joan (Wozniak) Luckcock of Monroeville, PA. passed peacefully on Tuesday, April 16, 2024.

Beloved mother to Lucy (Erik) Kelly of North Huntingdon, PA, Alex McClure of Lake Mary, FL, and Jennifer Gereshenski of Los Angeles, CA. Dearest grammy to Evelyn Agnes Kelly. Mary Joan recently retired after a 30-year career in nursing, where she was an esteemed leader in her profession. She was a lifelong caregiver to all and dedicated her professional career to providing the utmost quality of care to her patients. Her greatest joy in life was being a mother and grammy, and her love and generosity knew no bounds. Mary Joan's endless love and support for her children were evident to all who knew her, especially her three children and beloved granddaughter Evelyn Agnes.

Mary Joan delighted in caring for her home and gardens. She loved gatherings with friends and family and enjoyed exploring creative arts. “ MJ - I have many wonderful memories from our 6 years together. I enjoyed spending holidays and birthdays with you, sitting by the fire, and mowing your lawn. These memories will last a lifetime. I love and miss you. Rest in peace. - Ron “ How I'll miss my big sister, we had many good talks in the last few years, helped me thru tough times. Couldn't ask for a more caring, wonderful sister and friend. I will miss you. I love you.

“ MJ was a dear friend through the years. We worked together at multiple homes and always seemed to end up dealing with resident and family behaviors together. Her laugh and smile were contagious! She was a fierce friend and loved her children and granddaughter beyond measure. I'm still in shock that she's gone, but also know that she is at peace. She will be missed....
