“ Without knowing it, Ed and I have been following you and Charlie most of our lives. It started in a Oakland when we lived in your old apartment on Broughton St. Then of course we moved to Monroeville later where we discovered that Charlie was on the ship that my father captained during the war. We enjoyed you both for many years. Being the youngest of the group, it should not surprise us that you have gone before us. We will always miss you and will surely see you again.
