

Mei-Ngor Mavis Chan

October 1, 2021

Mei-Ngor Mavis Chan was born in Hong Kong on January 9, 1955. She accepted Jesus Christ as her savior in her junior year at True Light Middle School of Hong Kong. She later enrolled in Alliance Bible Seminary in Cheung Chau, Hong Kong. After she graduated in 1979, she served the Alliance Chinese Church in Hong Kong.

In 1989, she moved to the United States and began her ministry with international students in the Pittsburgh area and at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She eventually relocated to Indiana, PA to continue serving the international student community. She was consecrated in 2002 as an official worker of the Christian & Missionary Alliance. As the Director of International Ministries at Indiana Alliance Church, she brought many international students to know and accept Jesus Christ. She had a selfless and caring heart, showing Christ's love to family and friends alike. She constantly hosted Bible studies and dinners for students and supported them with whatever they needed. She had a burning desire to bring the Gospel to others, regardless of their culture and background. She also brought her mother to accept Jesus Christ. Though she did not have children of her own, she was greatly involved in the lives of her nieces and nephews, both in Hong Kong and in Pittsburgh. She was preceded in death by her father, Ming-Fu Chan; her mother, Yuet-Ying Fung; and her brother, Lap-Wah Chan. She is dearly missed by her older brother Lap-Tak Chan (Wai-Har Annie); nephews Ngok-Fung Edwin Chan, Jonathan Chan, and Gabriel Chan (Melanie); and nieces Ngok-Yan Alice

Chan and Joycelyn Laohoo (William). Friends will be received on Saturday, October 16, 2021 from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike.
