“ I am a teacher a North American Martyrs School and usually the first one in our building. I would see a sweet, spry little woman walking, sometimes in the dark, around the school grounds. I introduced myself one day and learned that she was the next door neighbor of the Toohill family. I've known them for years since I've taught both Jack and KatyJane. When I learned of her fall and subsequent death, I was truly saddened. What a kind woman! I will miss not seeing her as I pull into school.
