“ Completely off topic, but why wasn't Elizabeth Almes, the wife of the late Robert, mentioned. I absolutely don't ever want to start a controversy, but I hope the absence of my mother's name in the obit. was an oversight.

“ Yes, we were young when you moved away but the memories will last forever... riding the carousel, watching the trains, throwing coins in the fountain, not to mention your magic tricks. You never showed us anything but love Grandpop, and we will miss you. Someday we will meet again...

“ I was pretty young when you moved away from Long Island, so in the last 35 years or so I have only seen you a handful of times, but I have great memories of those times. My biggest regret is not making a better attempt to come visit you and that is something I will have to live with. I love you grandpop.

“ I will always remember how safe you made me feel when you embraced me and told me how much you cared. I will never forget your zany humor. I love you.
