

Narayan Chaudhari

June 30, 2022

Narayan Chaudhari, 84, of Pittsburgh, PA died on Thursday, June 30, 2022, surrounded by his loving family. Born on January 20, 1938 in Rozoda, India, he was the son of Madhav & Janaki Chaudhari.

Narayan started his engineering education at the University of Poona where he obtained Bachelor of Science Degrees in Electrical & Mechanical Engineering. Narayan then came to the United States in 1959 for his post-graduate education and attended the University of Illinois obtaining his Master of Science Degree in Petroleum Engineering and a PhD in Mining Engineering with a minor in Mathematics. He began his career at the Conoco Oil Corporation. He eventually went to work for Gulf Oil in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania then transferred to Houston, Texas where he retired working for the Chevron Corporation.

Narayan's passions in his early life were tennis and badminton. He loved to play and compete with others at the gymnasium in Chatham College. As well, he competed in local tournaments and placed on the podium several times.

His extended family was the other passion in his life and was his living legacy. He enjoyed watching his five grandchildren grow up to be wonderful adults excelling in education, technical competitions, sports, and their careers.

Narayan is survived by his beloved wife and companion, Neela Chaudhari DMD; daughter, Sunita Chaudhari, MD (Mark Seminatore) of Penn Township; and son, Atul Chaudhari (Kathleen) of Peters Township. Narayan's legacy continues with his grandchildren; Sarah, Samantha, Ian, & Anna Chaudhari and Milan Seminatore. Narayan is predeceased by his grandchildren, Baby Seminatore and Deven Chaudhari. Funeral arrangements for Narayan will be private and handled by the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to your favorite medical charity.
