“ Dear Bonnie, David, Becky and Matt,

So sorry to hear of Aunt Nellie's passing. The image of Nellie that immediately comes to mind is her standing on the side porch with her hand on her hips and yelling up to me "Well are you coming down for coffee or not?" I greatly enjoyed our talks over coffee. We didn't solve any world problems but laughed a lot. She was a wonderful person, very easy to talk to and will be missed.

Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers.

God Bless

I loved Nellie so much! It's horrible that we cannot pay her respects, but in a sense I think she would like that...because she was so humble. I am so very sorry for your beautiful, loving mom. Much love to you all.
