

Olive B. Hodges

May 12, 2015

Age 87, of Monroeville, passed away on Tuesday, May 12, 2015, at Concordia, Monroeville. She was a longtime member of North American Martyrs Catholic Church, where she sang in the choir. Born on January 22, 1928, in Nuremberg, Pennsylvania, she was a daughter of the late John and Larue (Sachs) Nicolodi. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her second husband, H. Anthony Hodges in 2006, and her first husband, Anthony Kasmarsik in 2003. Her siblings preceded her in death, Robert Nicolodi (Marion), Evelyn Devore, Edna McClarey (William), June Troy (James), and Marion Lindner (Henry). She was also preceded in death by a stepdaughter, Beverly Graham (Harold). Mitzi is survived by numerous nieces and nephews; her stepson, Thomas Hodges (Kimberly) of Oakmont, and her stepdaughter, Andrea Hodges of Toronto, Ontario. She expressed joy in watching her step-granddaughter, Allison, grow up. Mitzi graduated from North Union High School in Nuremberg, PA in 1946. She was employed for years by Miracle Mile Cleaners, retiring when her first husband retired. She especially enjoyed family reunions (Summits) and smaller gatherings with family. She was a sharp card player and played regularly with some of her many friends. She had a zest for life and soaring spirit not seen often enough. She will be missed by all who knew her. The family would like to thank the nurses and staff of Concordia, Monroeville and the nurses of Three Rivers Hospice, especially Erica and Mary, for their compassion and care during Mitzi's time with them. Friends will be received 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. Friday at the GENE H.

CORL, INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100). Mass of Christian
Burial 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, 2015, at North American Martyrs Church, with Father Steve Chervenak, as celebrant. Interment following in Good Shepherd Cemetery.