

Pamela "Pam" Valentine

March 3, 2025

Pamela "Pam" DeBor Valentine, 79, of Cranberry Township, passed away peacefully on March 3, 2025, after a courageous fight to recover from a stroke. Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Pam graduated from Dormont High School and earned her degree from the Penn State School of Education. She spent much of her married life in Monroeville before relocating to Cranberry Township in 2014 to be closer to her grandchildren.

Pam is survived by her stepson, John Valentine; daughter-in-law, Gina Valentine; and grandchildren, Mia, Kayla, Kira, and Nika Valentine. She was preceded in death by her brother, Curt DeBor and her beloved husband Jack Valentine.

A lifelong seamstress, Pam was passionate about sewing, quilting, embroidery, knitting, and various other handcrafts. Her creativity was evident in the numerous projects she lovingly crafted for others, including wedding dresses, christening gowns, and Halloween costumes for her granddaughter, Mia. Pam loved to travel, especially enjoying cruises with her husband and adventures with friends. She was an avid reader, known for her excellent book recommendations. Her love for sports was evident in her unwavering support for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Pirates, and Penn State football. She never missed watching a football game. In addition to her many talents, Pam enjoyed skiing and later embraced swimming and yoga, embodying a spirit that was always on the go. Pam was a fun and loyal friend to many, with strong friendships that lasted a lifetime. Pam had a wonderful sense of humor, and her vibrant presence will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Pam will be laid to rest at the National Cemetery of the Alleghenies next to her husband Jack. There will be a private service at the cemetery. Arrangements entrusted to GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE.

“ Pam was my friend since seventh grade. Even though I didn't see her every year we always managed to find a way to catch up! She had two people who she loved very much and those people were Jack and Mia! Every conversation was about them! Pam was amazing because of her sewing talent and hysterical dry wit. Her looks were deceiving. As pretty as she was she had that special timing too! She reminded me of Jack Benny! She always made me laugh! I will miss her.

“ I met Pam when I bought my embroidery/sewing machine. Later I worked at the store with her. She was an inspiration to me and helped me make my grandsons' christening gown. She had was extremely talented and will be missed.
