“ Over 50 years ago you moved in across the street on Corkwood Drive. We have wonderful memories of our parents parties, our shared childhood adventures, and just being neighbors in the purest sense. Your mom and my parents watched out for each other long after we left. Her lights were always on late, and that in itself was reassuring.

She was there when my mother was sick and I'll never forget her warm hug at the reception following her burial. Both of our families were blessed with amazing parents. And even though they are gone physically, trust me when I say their words and memories will be with you forever. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this very difficult time. May she rest in peace!

“ My thoughts are with the children of Mrs. Hickey since we recently took this sad journey as we buried our dear Dad in April. The Hickey family was an important part of my childhood on Corkwood Drive and I will never forget the many summer sleepovers and shared life experiences at St. Coleman's with my best friend, Sue. Thank you Mrs. Hickey for raising such a loving family and prayers for your eternal peace in the loving arms of our Heavenly father. Say hi to the old Foxwood bridge group in Heaven!

“ We heard about Mrs. Hickey's passing via Facebook and Susie's post. Mrs. Hickey was always the sentinel for the Corkwood Drive families. The Hickey family grew up with us and the parents always looked out for each other's family - especially Mrs. Hickey! There was a sense of comfort knowing that she was always 'in the know'. With a kind heart and 'quick' wit, not much got passed her - and with 6 children - that was a necessity! She loved her family and celebrated all the ups and comforted the downs - just like a good mom and grandmother. She will be missed - we grieve with you all and wish you peace as you move forward. Sending much love and prayers - Diane Janczewski Lindblad
