“ Dear Tony, Eileen, Sister Virginia Marie, David, Lou, and Maola family:
Remembering many lovely childhood days spent with my cousins in North Braddock. While we grew apart as adults, I like to think we remain close in spirit and heart.
I remember how happy Becky was when she met and married you Tony. In the last few years she told me how much she enjoyed her home and gazebo and her flower arranging.
May you find comfort that Becky was welcomed in to heaven on the Blessed Mother's most holy day. God bless and comfort you. My heart and prayers are with you. Cousin Susan
