

Richard K. DeJeet

February 11, 2024

Richard K. DeJeet (wife, Gloria Cicero DeJeet deceased), 91, born on June 22, 1932, peacefully passed away on February 11, 2024. His children survive him through his former wife, Donna Sue West (deceased); Kris DeJeet (wife Susanna); and Jay DeJeet and his daughter, Kim DeJeet Washowich (wife of Charles Washowich, deceased). He is the grandfather of Kristian DeJeet and Brittany DeJeet (deceased), step-granddaughter Breanna Lisotto, and great-grandchildren Riley Evans and Eva Rivera.

Richard was a salesman in his younger days and was an avid tennis player. After retiring to Seabrook Island, SC, he returned to PA in 2015 for health reasons. Richard grew up in Indianapolis, IN, where he enlisted in the USMC and served in the Korean War. He was a World War II history buff and enjoyed reading anything on the subject. At age 91, his mind remained sharp, and his quick wit remained rich until the end. He was a huge fan of anything chocolate. As a veteran and proud American, he enjoyed discussing history, politics, and the need to make America great again. There will be no service or viewing.
