

Richard Evans

May 14, 2012

Age 66, of Plum Boro, died Monday, May 14, 2012, in the comfort of his home. He was the beloved husband of Eileen for 38 years, and is survived by six children: Marianna Chambers, Julie McLaughlin, George Waibel, Victoria May, Laura Plaisted, Jennifer McLaughlin, 12 grandchildren, and 8 great-grandchildren. Rich served in the USN from 1965-69, worked as an electronics technician at Westinghouse Research for 25 years and Carnegie-Mellon for 10 years. He made the most important decision of his life in 1973, being baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. For the last 38 years he has participated in the Christian ministry every month, sharing his Kingdom hope with all who would listen. During much of that time he served the congregations in Murrysville and Avonmore in various capacities. Rich was greatly loved by all in his congregation, and known especially for his kind, loving manner. His friends and family look forward to seeing him in the resurrection! There will be a memorial talk given at the Avonmore Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 2556 Route 380, Avonmore, on Sunday, May 20, at 3:00 p.m.
