When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little; but not too long; and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared. Miss me; but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take; and each must go alone. It’s all part of the Master’s plan, a step on the road home. When you are lonely and sick at heart; go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in good deeds. Miss me; but let me go.
