Robert C. "Bob" Haberle

With saddened hearts, the family of Robert Craig "Bob" Haberle of Monroeville, announce his passing on July 18, 2022. Bob was 64 and one of a kind. He died peacefully at home surrounded by his family that he adored and the love of Jesus Christ his Lord and Savior who blessed everyone through Bob and his life. Beloved husband of Andree Haberle; dedicated and adoring father of Rachel and Jacob Haberle; incomparably devoted brother to David Haberle. Bob is also survived by his brothers, Scott and Eric Haberle and numerous close and extended family members. Bob is preceded in death by his incredibly loving parents, Robert and Jean Haberle. Bob touched the lives of so many people through his passion to serve and help others during his career as one of Pittsburgh's most excellent Executive Chefs. Bob used his tremendous talent not only to prepare food for people, but to also express his heartfelt kindness, love, and passion to serve others and to make the city of Pittsburgh a better place. Bob loved all sports but especially golf and he scored two holes in one last year. He enjoyed music, movies, games, animals (especially feeding his deer herd), pastries, frozen custard, and vacations to the beach. He also loved to prank, joke, and laugh. Most of all, Bob enjoyed spending his time and energy with his family and friends and giving anything that was asked of him. Bob had a proclivity to make people laugh and to make everyone feel welcomed and loved. Above all, Bob loved Jesus, his family and friends and the countless people that he helped throughout his life. Bob

“ A Lifelong Friendship Begins

Guess who I sit behind in homeroom on the first day of seventh grade at South Junior High? (Hint: what name comes after Haberle?) Haimovitz of course! I walk right past him as I sit down at my desk, the last one in the first row. I sense a hulking presence as I settle in and raise my eyes, but my view is blocked by his humungous head and broad shoulders. He turns and smiles at me. “You of all people,” he says, “who robbed me of three homeruns last baseball season.” I smile back, “sorry Bob, it was the only thing we could do because you hit the ball a mile.” “It was cheating.” “Not really, there wasn’t a fence.” We both start laughing. “What kind of last name is Haimovitz?” which he butchers. “Jewish, I respond. “I don’t know any Jewish people, you’re my first one,” and smiles broadly. Relieved, I pat him on his meaty shoulder. Instant friends, for life, it turns out.

Feels like yesterday. I loved Bob Haberle

“ My deepest sympathies to the Haberle family. In 1979 I started a job at the Holiday House in Monroeville. Bob was the first person I met. We had an instant connection. He took me under his wing, teaching me the ins and outs of high end bartending. I owe my success to Bobby.
