“ Rob and I met at Penn State and we've been friends ever since. He was a great guy; easy to get along with, easy to camp with. I will always remember my friend. Godspeed Robby.

“ My dear childhood and longtime friend is gone. Our families lived across the street from each other. A million memories fill my head and my heart every time I think of him, not just now, but for the past 49 years, all the time we were friends. My kids called him Uncle Robbie.

The neighborhood has been gone for a long, long, time, but his death makes it all too permanent, and heartbreaking.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to my Aunt Jean, and the rest of the family. This news was sad to receive and completely unexpected. I recall so many great childhood memories with the extended family with so many cousins, aunts and uncles....a lot of great laughs, and many fantastic memories. Robbie would often be a quieter one, but always a big smile on his face, stretching ear to ear. Cousin Robbie, you'll be missed... & may you rest in peace!
