“ Pap,
We will keep your memory alive and never, ever forget you. You were the most amazing grandfather anyone could have ever asked for. You loved Grandma with your whole heart and you cherished your kids and grandchildren. You were the most gentle silly family man! Thank you for being such a huge part of our lives! We miss you already! I hope you are driving the most beautiful 57 Chevy God has up there! Love u Pap!!!

Our thoughts and prayers are with Bob's (Bobby to us) Family. We married and moved to Kansas when Bob would have been 15, and over the years, sadly lost track of most of my Howell cousins whom I grew up with in North Versailles. Bob sounded like a good man, and we hope Linda, their children and grandchildren continue to share good memories to help ease the pain of their loss. I also would like to extend our sympathy to his surviving siblings, Blanche (Sis), Cindy and Johnny. Peace be with you all.

Barbara (Agatucci) and Joe Ruskowitz.

To the Robert (Bobbie) to me.....always.....as you will always be remembered. My father George and mom Anna May moved us away in 1967. We grew up over here in the west and then my family and I in the northwest. I, too, lost touch with my Howell side of the family. Linda, I hope all of your and Bobby's family continue to have your closeness of a family and not loose the glue. Your cousin and family, Debbie (Howell) Flumerfelt
