“ I met Bob when I met my second cousin Carol. You could not know one without the other. The three of us shared many good times from putting an horrendous Christmas tree puzzle together to driving to Martinsburg, WV to visit a mutual cousin. They visited me when I lived in Louisville and also now that I live in Bremen, IN. They were both wonderful hosts when my nieces and nephews came to Pittsburgh for football games or when I was just passing through the area. I enjoyed discussing gardening, home improvement and the news of Pittsburgh with Bob. He was a wonderful man and will be missed by all who knew him. R.I.P. dear friend.

“ He is and will always be my PeePaw. He taught me and showed me so many things over our years together. I couldn't have asked for a better man to be my grandfather. I loved him so much while he was here and I'll love and miss him tremendously now that he's gone. There can't ever and won't ever be another man like him. He truly was one of a kind. I hope there a lot of strawberries and strawberry pie in heaven; he deserves them all plus some.

I love you PeePaw. I'll never stop missing you. Please be with us somehow in your absence. Especially with MeeMaw.
