“ I remember Ron from Clarion. He was a large guy, very well built and like brother Parry said "when he talked you listened". That aside, he was one of the nicest guys you would ever want to meet. I don't ever recall him being cross or angry at anyone. He was a great Theta Xi brother. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Brozovich but, I know and respect his Son Matt and would like to wish him and his family my condolences. "Absent from the body, in the presence of our Lord" ...I lost my Dad not too long ago and I know your pain...I wish you all peace and ease through this very difficult time. Angelo DiAntonio

“Mr. Broz was the sweetest kindest man that I have ever met. I took my daughter to meet him at the school and he had just got a brand new suit the day before and he sis that he wanted to hold her and she threw up all over it. That was one of the many memories that we had to share every time I saw him. I'm so sorry for your loss. I will remember him forever.

“I had the pleasure of meeting Ronald unfortunately shortly after our visit little did Matt and I know that he had stage 4 pancreatic cancer, but getting the chance to meet Matts dad and speak with him on the phone occasionally while he was in and out of the hospital dealing with his sickness was rough. Because i knew soon Matt would have to say goodbye to his father something no one can prepare us for. I knew I would have to see the person I love and care for grieve over the loss of a loved one. But it left me with thankfulness in my heart that his dad Ronald created such an amazing son one with the biggest heart Ive ever come across. You will live on in your boys and in our hearts you'll never be forgotten. We love you always and forever Ronald E Brozovich ❤️

“ RON WAS A GOOD MAN, A GOOD FRIEND, AND A GREAT EDUCATOR. HE HAD WORKED AT KISKI AREA HIGH SCHOOL FOR NEARLY 20 YEARS BEFORE MY ARRIVAL AS PRINCIPAL, BUT HE WELCOMED ME WARMLY, AND MADE MY TRANSITION TO THE JOB AND SCHOOL VERY EASY. THE TEACHERS AND STUDENTS AT KISKI LOVED AND RESPECTED RON AND BENEFITTED GREATLY FROM HIS EXPERTISE AND DEDICATION TO THEM AND THE SCHOOL. MY SINCERE CONDOLENCES TO MARILYN AND HIS SONS. ALTHOUGH I HAVE NOT SEEN OR TALKED WITH RON FOR A WHILE, I WILL MISS HIM AND HIS FRIENDSHIP. MAY GOD GRANT HIM PEACE. SINCERELY, JOHN SHANER

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Ronald, but his son, Matt, is one of my closest friends. If we were able to measure the worth of a man solely based on his children, I believe Ronald would be priceless. His children are his legacy. I'm surprised Matt's chest can hold the size of his heart, which in no small part was due to the parents who raised him and the morals and values that were instilled. Ronald's heart must've been immeasurable.

My deepest condolences to his family and friends.
