“ I am so very sorry to hear that Ron passed away. I used to ride the bus to town with Ron when he worked at Equitable. He always stopped to share a conversation with me. I also have memories of seeing Ron at Christmas service at the MUM church. He always had a smile on his face. He will be missed at church and by everyone who knew him.

Sincerely,

“ Ron was a real special friend at church and we volunteered together at Senior Saturdays. Ron did not act retired, but had the determination and wittiness of a man half his age. Plus, Ron always was the faithful Christian . My husband and I will truly miss him and just know, he found himself another job, helping out in heaven ❤️

“ Ron was my favorite customer during the six years I worked at Labriola's in Monroeville. He would always come in and talk with me about movies as he bought his Pepsi, and many times asked me to guess how many pretzels were in his bag. Such a great guy! He will be missed by all of the Labriola's employees.
