“ Deepest sympathy to the Koerner family on your loss. I knew Ron while working for his summer road crew as a college student in the late 1960's. We both served as firemen at Monroeville 4 for many years. Ron always treated everyone with great respect and still remember him as the best boss ever!

“ My deepest sympathy to the Koerner family. I served with Ron in the fire department for many years. He was a warm, friendly person whom I have many fond memories of. Rest easy my friend and thank you for your service and friendship.

“ I always thought there would be more time but Monday turned into Friday, January turned into June, and adolescent turned into adulthood. Perhaps time got away from me or perhaps I was scared to lose that childhood image I created of him, that hero, that saint. But the truth is stayed away, way too long. What I wouldn't give to see him one more time, to hug him, and to hold him in my arms. But I lost that chance, so all I can hold onto is my memories of him of Plantation Park, Chuck E Cheese, Kennywood, Zoos, historical landmarks, dancing, biking, laughing, his stories, the way he made friends wherever he went, the words "Hey, Krissy", which sounded more like "Hey, Chris say" or the way he called grandma, "Shearl", the way he called me beautiful, even during my awkward teenage years, the smell of cooking bacon on a propane stove, chilly summer nights with a camp fire, and eating cereal before bed. While those memories remain, he's gone and the world is a colder place without his warmth, his smile, and his cheery disposition.
