“ My Grandma was a wonderful woman, and I am so incredibly thankful to have had her in my life as I have grown up. She was my cheerleader in everything I did, my go-to for advice, and my partner in crime. We shared so much in common, from food, to music, to travel. I could sit and listen to her tell stories about her life for days. I had 18 incredible years to talk with her, cry with her, and laugh with her.

She loved life, she loved her family, and she loved the Lord. My Grandma loved deeply, and is deeply loved for it.

“ I met Ruth when we visited my brother, Ben, and sister in law, Tina, who were her neighbors next door. The impact and support she provided them, at a very difficult time, was the true meaning of Christ's love... She was a true witness of Christian love. May she rest in peace...
