

Sandra F. Lewis

September 17, 2018

It is with deep sadness that the family of Sandi Lewis of Monroeville, Pa., announces her passing on Monday, Sept. 17, 2018 at age 65. Beloved wife of the late Norman F. Lewis; beloved sister of Barbara (Kenneth) Link of Monroeville, Frederick (Diane) Feldmeier of NC, and Janine (Thomas) Kennedy of Upper St. Clair; beloved daughter of the late Robert and Marion (Miller) Feldmeier. Sandi loved to teach, read books, and dearly loved her pets and all animals. After graduating Clarion University with a degree in education, Sandi embarked on a trip to the Outback near New South Wales, Australia, and to the island of Tasmania, where she taught elementary education. After two years, Sandi returned to the United States and later, enrolled in Duquesne University where she earned her Masters in Special Education. She spent her last teaching years in Lebanon, Pa. A Memorial Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Friday, Nov. 23, 2018, at 10 AM, North American Martyrs Church, 2526 Haymaker Rd., Monroeville. Interment in Good Shepherd Cemetery. All are welcome.

“ I am devistated to hear of Sandi's passing. She was a great friend in high school. We celebrated graduation with a trip to Penn State to visit my brother at his frat house. We lost touch in recent years with distance an issue. Sandi will remain in my heart forever.
