

Shirley E. (Marsh) Opitz

December 15, 2021

Shirley Ethel (Marsh) Opitz, widow of Lieutenant Commander Albert G. Opitz USN (retired) transitioned peacefully on December 15, 2021. Shirley was the daughter of Edward Marsh and Flora (Davis) Marsh of Ludlow, VT and Springfield, MA born in 1925. Mother of deceased Johann P. Opitz (2014) of Cedar City, UT. and deceased Kristina M. McClelland (1992) of Monroeville PA. Shirley is survived by granddaughters, Shalan McClelland of Alexandria, VA. and Caroline Price of Las Vegas, NV.; great-grandmother to Aaron Price and a great-great grandmother to Chanel, Alana, & AJ. Shirley attended Springfield, MA. American National College. As a descendant to many old New England families, she was a life member of the Parson's Family Association, Founders of Ancient Windsor Historical Society and Ladies of the Veterans Foreign of Wars. After nearly 60 years of marriage and many addresses across the country, Shirley's heart fell in love with Pittsburgh PA. Shirley resided in Oakmont/Verona, PA community. The family would like to thank the staff at Heartland Hospice and Longwood at Oakmont Assisted Living Community. In lieu of flowers, please donate to AA•MDS in honor or in memory of Shirley Opitz, at www.AAMDS.org/donate. A memorial service to be held at a later date. Arrangements entrusted to the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE www.corlfuneralchapel.com
