

Thomas "TJ" Gatti

January 16, 2011

Age 26, of Baltimore, Maryland, formerly of Monroeville, died on Sunday, January 16, 2011, at the Franklin Square Hospital in White Marsh, Maryland, due to a cardiac arrest. TJ was born on April 25, 1984 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was the treasured son of Thomas David Gatti Sr., and Elizabeth Ann Gatti. He leaves behind three brothers, Joe, Andrew and Stephen, and two sisters-in-law, Darcie and Amanda, who loved him dearly. TJ graduated from Gateway Senior High School, after which he matriculated to Indiana University of Pennsylvania earning a degree in Nuclear Medicine. TJ started working for Digirad Imaging Solutions in Baltimore as a nuclear technologist, but was quickly promoted to operations supervisor for the mid-Atlantic region. While serving in that capacity for two years, he remained a loyal Steelers fan among a flock of Ravens. TJ spent his last hours rooting the Steelers to another AFC championship game. He was active in his community, volunteering his time with Big Brothers and Sisters of Baltimore. TJ was often seen at Baltimore's Merritt Club or Gold's Gym, tantalizing the affections of the fairer gender. The consummate gentleman, TJ was known for his boisterous personality, his sense of humor and his uncanny kindness. If you needed him, he was always there to lend a helping hand. He is survived by his parents, siblings and beloved puppy, Lena. TJ was an organ donor with the Living Legacy of Maryland. Friends received at the GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL & CREMATION CENTER OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (1 block East of Mossie Blvd.-Rte. 48) (A Golden Rule Member). Visitation

Thursday, 12-4 & 6-9 p.m. Mass of Christian Burial on Friday at 1 p.m. at St. Bernadette Catholic Church. EVERYONE PLEASE GO DIRECTLY TO THE CHURCH. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to the American Heart Association, greatly appreciated.
