

Travis Brown

October 15, 2025

Travis Brown, age 37, of Monroeville, Pennsylvania, passed away unexpectedly due to a motor vehicle accident on Wednesday, October 15, 2025. Born on January 12, 1988, Travis was a fun loving and free spirit who brought laughter, fun, and a sense of adventure to everyone around him. He is survived by his daughters whom he absolutely adored and were his whole life Journee (8) and Kali (6), of Export Pennsylvania, and their mother, Jade Jordan.

As an only child He leaves behind his loving parents, Todd and Kathy Brown, his grandfather Fred “Woody” Woodward, his aunts and uncles as well as numerous cousins. Travis also leaves his sweet dog Kane, whom he adopted a few years ago.

Travis was a member of the Cross Roads Presbyterian Church in Monroeville. Travis was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother Donna Woodward and his paternal grandparents Cathy and Fred Brown.

Though his time with us was far too short, he was always up for a good time and had a talent for making people laugh and smile. Travis was devoted to living life to its fullest, and that he did very well.

Friends and family will be received on Sunday, October 19, 2025, from 1:00 PM until 5:00 PM at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100).

“ As Todd's cousin, I mostly knew Travis as a little one and through his teens. So beautiful and full of life and curiosity. He always brought merriment to family gatherings and holiday dinners. My deepest sympathy to his loving family.

“ I am so deeply sorry to hear of this news. I went to elementary school-high school with Travis. I remember sitting next to him in 4th grade, and him making me laugh all the time!

My heart goes out to his family and his dog Kane. May you all have peace as you navigate this heart wrenching time.

Sending peace and prayers. 🕯️🙏📭

“ I didn't get to know him well but I was impressed with Travis the first time that I met him. A young eager, aggressive and intelligent man with a beautiful family and great parents. May God envelope him into His Kingdom and bless his family.
