“ Tyler was always a smiling face at Oblock and though I did not have him in class he became one of us through his friends and the JROTC program. The Mustang Corral lost one but Heaven gained one. RIP

“ As a teacher, you try not to have favorite students, but Tyler was one of mine. Tyler would go out of his way to greet me, he was always respectful, courteous, pleasant, and had a smile that was contagious. This world is worse off without him in it.

You will be missed--Rest Easy,

“ I've been friends with Tyler since we were about 16. We met through Sean Fischer and he always had a strong connection with our group of friends. He was always there to help or to make you laugh. I can honestly say my life is much better knowing Tyler. I'm happy for the time we spent together as wild young men and I'll now cherish the time we spent together catching up and seeing each other at Sean's wedding a couple months ago. Fly high my man and prayers to your loved ones.

“ I'll be the first to share a memory. I actually first met Tyler in the 9th grade. I wasn't friends with him but I was forced to have every single class with him. He reminded me a lot of my little brother Austin, which is so ironic. After graduation I thought that was the last time I'd see him. Welp my little brother married his sister and now we shared the same nephew. So I got to actually know who he was outside of high school. He was always very sweet. He would light up the room with his smile. He was a great Uncle to our nephew and you could tell he really cared about him. My daughter Mila adored him as well. I'm lucky I got to know him a little outside the bubble of high school. I pray for peace for his Gf, family, & friends. I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a great man. ❤️

Tyler, I'm honored to have had the privilege and pleasure of knowing you. We have known each other for years. All the times we laughed at the bar, or at a friend's on a holiday. You were a kind, fun, and generous soul. Thank you for all the good memories bud. I hope you have the peace in rest, that you never could in life!

Ty, anytime I saw you you were always full of laughs and smiles. Your smile could light up a room. I'll never forget you buying me my first "legal" drink at midnight on my 21st birthday at the Bull, a random Tuesday with me, you, Tiff and a few of my girl friends. You were one of a kind. Give Heaven some hell ❤️
