“ I was blessed to have Vivian Jean Taylor Kucherer as my mother-in-law. She welcomed me into her life as a daughter. She was a woman of strength, spirit, and wit. Viv entertained family and friends with great stories. She told of her childhood days in Baltimore. As the daughter of a railroad man, she loved trains. She told of how she and her sister rode the train to D.C. for adventures. She recalled the experiences of living in Baltimore during WW2, describing blackouts and the fear of U-boats. She spoke fondly of her courtship with her childhood sweetheart and lifelong companion, Harvey. She danced to happy songs with her granddaughter, Julie, and recalled her days of strutting as a majorette. Viv raised 4 boys, sewing and knitting their clothing and caring for them as Harvey earned his college degree. She taught knitting classes at Sears. She ran in many 10 K races and was a member of the Pittsburgh Roadrunners Club. Viv loved football, hockey, and baseball. She was adventurous; she and Harvey traveled to all 48 continental states. Viv also loved Ocean City MD, crossword puzzles, old Westerns, and chocolate.
