“ Dear Coulters,

I am sorry to hear of your father's passing. You are in my prayers and I am holding you in the Light.

I did not know your father well growing up, but I have fond memories of you, Lynn, and especially of you, Debra. Debra-you were in my class throughout elementary school and beyond-including when you sat behind me in ninth grade in typing class. And more. Thinking of all of you at this sad time.

I have had Bill in my mind....sad to find he has passed into Glory but very happy for him. I will always have fond memories of Bill from St.Martin's...and especially when thinking of his creative talent in making supplies for Godly Play and the kids in Sunday School. Bill was a quiet, loving, God fearing man. I look forward to seeing him again one day in Heaven. MaryPat Acquaviva
