“ Billy and Vicky always welcomed me into their home whenever I needed friends to lean on. Billy was a gental giant. He spoke the truth even when it was sometimes hard to hear. The one moment I remember most about Bill, was when we were at breakfast. I sat next to him and Sara. There was an unspoken love between him his daughter and his wife. The way he looked at them was incredible. I never felt love like that before. And I hope I can find that same love in my life. We should all be like Bill. The world would be a much better place. God Bless.

“ 35 years. How do you sum up 35 years of friendship , love, and memories? We were 15 when we met, and I knew even then what an incredible human you were. One of the good ones, one of the absolute best.

This is an unfathomable loss for the gang. One that cuts right to the very heart and soul of who we are as a “family”. Unwavering love, loyalty, and friendship are so rare in this world, and we are all so blessed to have received all of those things from you. I don’t know if things will ever be quite the same.

But..I promise you Bill D’Andries that the decades of stories, laughs, and memories will still be told at every get together. I promise that we will keep the get togethers going, and be there for each other. And I promise that you will be right there with us..In fact, I KNOW you will be, because you are such a huge part of US...

You will have a place in our hearts always, and we will love you forever.

All my love to the D’Andries family.
