“ Dear Family Aunt Vera and cousin Ronnie with sadness I write today on the Tribute wall.

.Cousin Billy and I share the same birthday in March. Bill was a few years younger than me. I fondly remember as children celebrating our birthdays together with cake and icecream. One birthday stands out in my mind ...we had our birthday celebration at Howard Johnsons! So much fun we had! Even now at age 64 I remember that day!

Rest in eternal peace cousin Bill. Also I have happy memory of our travel together to visit Aunt Eva n California. What an adventure! We were teenagers at that time.

*Your now a BRIGHT STAR among the Heavens!
Rest in Eternal Peace Dear cousin.*

*Love your cousin,

“ William "Billy" Dillon, Jr...We will Remember the Fun Times and the sad times and you made Me Laugh about everything. Remember that, Billy?

You are Up there in Heaven now.

I know how devastated about my Mom passing and you said, "that she was up there in Heaven with my Father and others..." Rest In Peace, Cousin Billy❤️

“ My childhood friend and bandmate through many years. Bill was such an amazing person and so passionate about music and drums. I know he has been suffering health issues, but even last summer we were talking about doing some gigs together. My prayers to his brother Ronnie and his mom and other family members. RIP Bill.

“ Billy Dillon, I've known and played with you nearly 45 years and I will miss you terribly. We always called each other once a month and I'll miss those calls. Heaven now has an Angel Drummer playing the choir.

From the Esta Esta, to Coolpeppers Hot House, The Thunderbird and too many other places to mention we were side by side on the stand. Drum on Billy Dillon and Godspeed to you.

Mrs Dillon and Ron my deepest condolences to you and your family. Billy was so kind, gentle, caring and a friend to everyone.
